THE WASHINGTON BEE

The Bee
GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 1898. No. 27

Ex State Senator John P. Green of Ohio.

Hon. Lyman Gage, Secretary of the Treasury.

COPYRIGHT 95

The jack of clubs has returned from New York.

Fools will say things that wise men will not dream.

Good men will do good deeds at all times.

Honest people will never suspect the innocent.

If you want to know the news read The Bee.

Be honest with your friends, it will pay you.

North Carolina politicians and their governor ought go and hide themslves.

Where was the governor of North Carolina when the red shirts were killing negroes?

The colored editor being forced to leave North Carolina should be investigated.

He didn't leave until one week after he wrote the article.

What does it mean? Don't all speak at once.

Hon. Geo. H. White was elected.

The Afro-American Council will meet and resolute.

If the colored republicans in North Carolina had bought fire arms instead of whisky, they would have had weapons of defense instead of whisky.

The question is what shall be done with the negro.

The cowardly attack that was made on Mr. Seville will not work.

The people of this country should protect their own here instead of going to another country.

Some men talk for fun, while others talk what they don't know.

"All this world is a stage and the people are merely players."

Speak the truth always, it is better than a lie.

It is not every man who grins in your face that you can call a friend.

We have an up to date Chief of Police.

When the Bee predicted all of these outrages, they called it treason.

Will some of the good people tell us what they call it now?

The colored schools are in need of a sewing director.

Nothing wins like success. It is bound to succeed.

The colored man needs to unite in all things.

Think well before you speak.

We never see our mistakes until it is too late.

Don't be in a hurry to tell what you know.

There is philosophy some times in the utterance of a fool.

That depends on who the fool is.

We often magnify our own importance.

Be useful citizens it will benefit you.

Some people never know what they want.

Let all good citizens subscribe to the Brucemonument fund.

Send your subscription to Cashier D. B. McCary of the Capital Savings Bank.

Bruce was a great man in his day and time.

There was an election last week.

Why not place North Carolina under martial law.

Will the next House sent one democratic Congressman from North Carolina?

By what right has the present regime in Wilmington, North Carolina to hold.

What has become of the negro leadership in the present crisis?

Gentlemen don't you all speak at once.

When will the United States take Cuba?

Don't be alarmed the country is safe.

Read the Bee if you want a fearless and independent paper.

Style, Fit and Workmanship GUARANTEED.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

☞ SPECIAL NOTICE. ☜

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." The Editor has no time to see the subscribers, and it is hoped that his friends and the patrons of THE BEE

DO OUR OWN SELECTING.

The white press of the country may as well understand now, that the colored people of this country are satisfied to select their own leaders. Such journals as the Washington Post, the Atlanta Constitution and many other papers edited by white men, have from time to time endeavored to force the colored people to accept men who are objectionable to them. There are only certain kinds of negroes who are more acceptable to a certain class of white people than others. The negro who does his own thinking is objectionable, but the negro who thinks to his own detriment and to the injure of his race is always the leader this white element will accept. Editor Manly is now being blamed for that which was conceived and planned for months. Manly has been charged with having been a party to this infamous deed. The act was perpetrated in August and the deed of the democrats was not executed till November. Yet the the collector of Port at Wilmington blames Manly for it all. This kind of talk suits that class of lawbreakers, because it makes their hellish deeds look justifiable to the American people.

A negro who will condone the wrongs and outrages practiced upon his people is a knave and a coward. Nothing could be expected from an informer prior to reconstruction. It was his stock in trade. He had a wicked as well as a brutal master. He did not possess that sense, that is, so characteristic of the negro today. The so called intelligent negro is equally as big a coward as the former slave. The office holder is unfit for leadership. His tongue is paralyzed; his thoughts loose their coherent utterance; his actions become suspicious and his entire body becomes intoxicated from the effects of his salary. Public meetings to condemn the wrongs against the oppressed of his race read like dime novels to him, because he dares not come within five hundred yards of the building in which the meetings are held. The office holder becomes the white man ideal negro leader, while the real leader is regarded impudent, obnoxious and an incendiary agitator. He is a dangerous element in the community and a bar to this proud Caucasian race.

OUR NEW POSTMASTER.

If it is the intention of the President to appoint a new city Postmaster, it is hoped that he will appoint Mr. Lewis D. Wine of this city, a good republican and a thorough gentleman. Mr. Wine is a business man and fully qualified for the place. His appointment would be acceptable to the people.

The BEE would suggest to the Post to use its sarcasm on sensible people. That chaff that appeared Wednesday will do for fools but not for sensible people.

Col. George H. Harries who was tendered a reception a few days ago seems to have won the plaudits of the District people.

Prof. Kelly Miller ought to take a tumble.

OUR TEACHERS ACCUSERS.

There are men in all communities who are ready at all times to abuse the honor and reputation of their women. One peculiar thing about the negro is that he is a moral coward so far as his women are concerned. Some men abuse women because they have failed in their adventures. Instead of finding them of easy virtue, they find them moral, upright and virtuous. It is the libertine, the gambler, the cut throat, the blackleg and the suspicious who are foremost in questioning the honor of our women. The negro is a coward in this particular. There are certain blackguards in this city who have questioned the honor of our women. If they should be unveiled, what would be found under their clothes? The marks of a gambler, the associates of the demi monds and everything of which a corrupt man would be guilty.

NEGRO APOLOGISTS.

It is not surprising to find in the negro race men who are willing and ready at all times to cater to the whims and indignities of the opposing race. The negro race is not an exception to the rule, because this race beyond all other races upon the globe contains negroes who will do anything for notoriety or to curry favor with a certain class of people. It was thought, at one time, that this obtained among the ignorant classes, but it is not so, you can find this toadyism among the alleged educated class or the supposed intelligent negro. We have among us four or five negro apologists or negro accidents. They have not the support or encouragement of their people because the negro as a whole will not tolerate toadyism.

We have never known, from the foundation of the world, an apologist to succeed or have the commendation of the people. In ancient times such people were killed or put out of the way to prevent them from contaminating the more intelligent and wise races of people. At this time the race needs no apologists.

IS IT MANLY?

There are people in this world who never make smart speeches until they get before a large crowd and then they shoot off their mouths at break neck speed. After a sober thought or when the newspapers commence to condemn them, they declare that they never made use of such utterances. Men should be honest and especially public men. If a man does an act which does not seem justifiable he should be told of it, no matter whom it is. One of the most honest and fearless men in this country is the Rev. George W. Lee of the Vermont Ave. Baptist church. He is manly as well as honest in his utterances. Cowards never win when they retreat from a just cause.

NOT ONE WORD.

Not one word of protest has been uttered by the representative colored men of North and South Carolina. But to the contrary, there seems to be a disposition on the part of some of them to apologize or put the entire blame on Editor Manly for something he wrote in August. It is too ridiculous to think about it and too cowardly for utterance. The editorial of Manly was not the cause of the murder of thirty or forty republicans in the States of North and South Carolina, nor was it on account of the black man, that colored republicans were murdered in South Carolina. For God's sake let the negro apologists go from the stage of action.

The speech of an office holder should be scrutinized with suspicion.

Instead of celebrating Emancipation day with parades, why not start industrial exhibitions?

THE PEOPLE AROUSED.

5000 ASSEMBLE TO CONDEMN THE WRONGS UPON THE RACE. REV. GEO. W. LEE SPEAKS—REV. BROOKS' ELOQUENT SPEECH—THE PEOPLE INDIGNANT.—AN APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT FOR PASSAGE OF AN ELECTION LAW.

The Vermont Ave. Baptist Church was crowded on last Monday evening with the most distinguished and most representative audience that ever assembled at the capital of the nation.

Rev. George W. Lee, the promoter, called the meeting to order, and in a neat, logical and eloquent speech stated its object.

Rev. Walter H. Brooks of the Nineteenth St. Baptist Church, offered prayer, after which a permanent organization was perfected by the election of Rev. Lee as chairman and Col. James Lewis as secretary.

On motion of Editor W. Calvin Chase, a committee on resolutions was appointed as follows: Rev. Dr. Brooks, Perry H. Carson, Revs. R. T. Hart, W. J. Howard, Messrs. E. M. Hewlett, W. Calvin Chase and M. U. McField. While the committee was out, speeches were made by ex-Governor P. B. S. Pinchback and Lawyer T. L. Jones.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

The committee through Rev. Walter H Brooks and W. Calvin Chase made its report. Rev. Brooks' report was an appeal to the patriotism of the American people and soliciting their sympathy and co operation.

MR. CHASE'S REPORT

was a condemnation of outrages upon the negroes in North and South Carolina and the Governors of those States for their failure to protect their citizens. That it was not the color, but because certain citizens were republicans because they were killed. Recommendation was made to the President to send to Congress a message asking a legislation for an election law.

The committee also reported a resolution commending, in the highest terms, the Evening Star of this city for its excellent defense of the negro. The editor Mr. Noyes is a gentleman of the highest type and also a humanitarian.

A resolution was also adopted denouncing George W. Stewart for his unwarrantable attack on the colored school teachers of this city.

A committee of 15 as follows was appointed to express the wishes of the people. W. Calvin Chase, chairman; Rev. Dr. G. W. Lee, Rev. Dr. W. J. Howard, Mr. Perry H. Carson, Prof. R. H. Terrell, Mr. E. M. Hewlett, Rev. Dr. A. C. Gaines, ex-Gov. P. B. S. Pinchback, Rev. Dr. R T. Hart, Mr. W. J. Tyler, Mr. J. W. Branson, Rev. J. I. Loving, Rev. Dr. J. Albert Jackson, Mr. Charles R. Douglass, Mr. Lucious H. Peterson.

The speech of Rev. Walter H. Brooks was one of the most eloquent ever delivered at any public meeting. Addresses were also delivered by Dr. J. N. Johnson, P. H. Carson and other.s

THE PEOPLE AROUSED.

The meeting of citizens at the Vermont Ave. Baptist church on last Monday night to consider the recent outrages perpetrated upon the negro in the South some few days ago, was one of the largest and most representative that has ever taken place in the history of this city. It is evident that the people are thoroughly aroused. It is not confined, alone, to the colored people, but to all classes of citizens in the United States. The negro will no longer be the slave and serf of demagogues.

MR. VANDERLIP.

One of the most active and one of the most valuable men in this administration is Assistant Secretary Vanderlip.

He is a man of knowledge and full of valuable information. Aside from his business qualifications, he is a true friend to the negro. Mr. Vanderlip has shown every consideration to the colored as well as to the white employes in the Treasury department. His visit to Porto Rico. to investigate the finances of that country will be a great help to the administration.

The President will soon be looking for a commissioner of Census and no better man can be found than this distinguished gentleman.

The patrons of the BEE are requested to send in their advertisements for the holiday edition of the BEE before December 1.

LIED AS USUAL.

It would be an injury to the Daily Post if it told the truth. Its report of the mass-meeting of citizens at the Vermont Avenue Baptist church on last Monday evening which appeared in Tuesday's Post contained in its head lines and a certain portion of the report that imflamatory speeches were delivered and that the speakers, with the exception of Rev. W. H. Brooks, advised force. THE BEE takes this occasion to deny the false and malicious misrepresentation made by the Daily Post and says in conclusion that the people in this city are not surprised to at anything the Post may publish. It is well understood that the Post is catering to the lawless and vicious elements in the South for personal interest. There is a day of retribution and the enemies to the negro and the Post will feel it. The negro is not at all disturbed in mind Please watch events and that soon. When it happens remember the prediction of the BEE.

Ex-State Senator Green before the 2nd Baptist church on last Sunday fully demonstrated his logical and eloquent powers. He is manly.

Send in your advertisements for our great holiday edition.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Ayres is entitled to the credit for the reception to the 9th and 10th cavalries.

The President will quite likely recommend to Congress the restoration of suffrage.

HORN THE TAILOR.

When a man works hard and earns his money and it becomes necessary to purchase a suit of clothes, he wants the best material for the money. He will look aronnd him or rather he will search the city to find a tailor and to his surprise he finds them all high-priced individuals. He never thinks of looking in the BEE to see if it contains advertisements of first-class tailors until he has almost become exhausted. He finally concludes to read the BEE and to his surprise he comes across the picture of Horn, the tailor. He becomes at once impressed with his face. Not only is the impression

Horn, the Tailor.

in Mr. Horn's face inviting, but when you go to his place of business, 637 F street, northwest, you will be surprised. His arrangement of strikes the eye. You hardly know from what samples to select. Just think of it.

FINE PRINCE ALBERTS,

twenty per cent cheaper than you can purchase them elsewhere. Full dress suits made to order and are guaranteed to fit. Mr. Horn is one of the most accommodating business men in this city and if you want first-class goods, better than you can purchase elsewhere for the money, you should not hesitate to call on Mr. Horn, 637 F street, n. w.

Those who have never been to his place of business should do so at once You should get a fine suit for Christmas New Year which will be here soon and you will ask the question, what will be done for a full dress suit. Just call and see this well-known tailor and be measured for a suit.

Rev. Frank J. Grimke is a man of nerve. He has not a cowardly bone in his body. He is one of the most independent ministers in the American pulpit.

There is nothing in the democratic party for the negro.

Mr. Dancy is of the opinion that Mr. Manly was to blame for the troubles in North Carolina.

There are hundreds of negro apologists in this country, who will sell out the negroes.

SENATOR QUAY.

Notwithstanding the dirty fight that ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker has made and is still making against Senator M. S. Quay, we are confident that the republican party in the State of Pennsylvania will see that he is reelected to the Senate. We are confident that Mr. Quay will be able to vindicate himself against the charges that have been made against him. The people are with Senator Quay.

THE SOUTH.

OUTRAGES AGAINST THE NEGRO.—HON. JOHN P. GREEN BEFORE THE SECOND BAPTIST LYCEUM—HIS MASTERLY SPEECH.

One of the most eloquent and masterly speeches was delivered on last Sunday afternoon, before the lyceum of the 2nd Baptist church. The speaker of the occasion was ex-State Senator John P. Green of Ohio. He spoke of the condition of the colored people in this country and especially in North and South Carolina. He gave a graphic review of the past condition of the negro in the South and the United States and compared his teatment to that of foreign countries with that in the United States. He paid a glowing tribute to the late Hon. Fred Douglass and some of the other representative Americans.

Mr Green discussed five propositions. In speaking of the negro he said:

First. "We are persecuted because we are scorned."

Second "Because we were soldiers and helped to put down the rebellion."

Third. "Because we have been republicans."

Fourth. "Because we are poor."

Fifth. "Because there is a lack of unity."

He also said that he was told that a man who comes to this city is judged by the size of the salary he gets.

The address was partially discussed by W. Calvin Chase, Lieutenant Tuma and Prof. F. L. Cardozo. Lawyer T. L. Jones will open the discussion tomorrow, which will be a continuation from last Sunday.

The address of Senator Green was received with great enthusiasm.

He talked about one and three-quarters of an hour without tiring his hearers

STEWART DENOUNCED.

On motion of L. H. Peterson, that the lyceum express its faith in the morality, character and good work of our colored public school teachers, the resolution was unanimously adopted Mr. Peterson in replying to Mr. Stewart challenged him to sign his paper and give it to him and in 24 hours he would have him in jail. He defended the good work of our school teachers and worked the meeting up to such a state of approved excitement that for a while it looked as if Stewart would have gotten the punishment needed. The pastor of the church condemned the paper and said if he had had an idea of its character he would not have allowed it to have been read.

SCHOOL OF PRINTING.

We would respectfullly call our readers' attention to a new field of labor that THE BEE has inaugurated at its office, 1109 I street, N. W.—a School of Printing for colored youths. It is the intention of the management that any who may avail themselves of the advantages of this school, shall receive a complete practical training in the art of printing in all its branches. The instructions will be under the personal supervision of Mr. Chase, member of the Typographical Union of this city, and who is without doubt among the best all-round printers in the country. Our facilities will be augmented by an entire new printing outfit, including all the latest styles of type, job presses and cylinder press, which will give pupils a chance to be up-to-date in the trade. In this connection we would ask our patrons to send in their orders for job work of any kind, as we will now be able to fill all orders from the smallest visiting card to the largest poster, and promise that our prices and work will compare favorably with those of any firm in the city.

Any young man desiring a trade will do well to write us for terms, etc., or call at this office and look over the establishment. The school will open on July 26th, and those desiring tuition will do well to inquire at once, as only a limited number can of necessity be accommodated. For information, terms, etc., Address, W. Calvin Chase, Manager Bee School of Printing.

Thanking you for past favors, and feeling assured of your support in this new endeavor, we are yours, THE BEE.

Smith, the lumberman In their declaration the female plaintiff alleges that on September 23, 1898, she was walking on the sidewalk in front of the defendant's lumber establishment and was struck by the falling of a piece of timber, causing the premature birth and death of her male child and alleged injuries received by her, by the negligence of the defendant.

MONDAY NIGHT.

Next Monday, there will be a large mass-meeting held at Isreal Bethel Church. A special correspondent who visited the scene of action will tel you all about it.

IS THE BIBLE INSPIRED.

"Is the Bible inspired," was the subject of a well written paper read by W. L. Houston, Esq., of the Record and Pension Division, War Department, before the Congressional Lyceum at Odd Fellows Hall, 1606 M street northwest, Sunday afternoon last.

The essayist declared that while he believed in the existence and power of the Diety and the birth life, crucifixion and resurrection of the Saviour, the many conflicting statements could not have been made under divine direction, but was the results of the environments of the virtues at the time. The speaker cited many texts both in the old and new Testament to prove his position, especially those in which Paul expressly denied that he was writing under divine authority. While short addresses were made by Messrs. M. T. Clinkscales, W. C Johnson, J. B. Williams, J. L. Finn and Parker, Mr. W. Pollard was the only one who really discussed the subject presented. So interesting was the paper that by special request it will be presented again by Mr. Houston Sunday Dec. 4th next. Interesting program tomorrow at 3:30 p. m.

UGGLED UP TO GEATNESS.

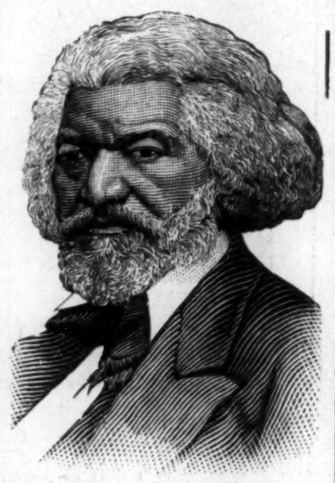
FREDERICK DOUGLASS, THE "BLACK O'CONNELL," WHO, BORN A SLAVE, ATTAINED TO STATESMANSHIP—THE ROCHESTER MONUMENT.

"I knew the noblest giant of my day,
And he was of them,—strong amid the strong;
He was a peer of princes,—yea a king!
Crowned in the seambles and the prison-pen!
The noblest slave that ever God set free.

"Here is thy greatest son, my Maryland,," exclaimed Dr. Rankins. Rise up to greet him as he passes through! Seventy-seven years ago, thou gavest him the birth of a bondman; but thou hast lost him. The nation has claimed him,—the wide world."

"Tell Gov. Buckingham to wait," said Lincoln, when the card of the Governor of Connecticut was presented, "for I want to have a long talk with my friend, Frederick Douglass."

"He was a man great in his physical manhood," said Justice Harlan, "but still greater in mental and moral organization. I do not hesitate to say that, among the orators that this country has produced, there was no greater than Frederick Douglass; and, in all my long enjoyment of his acquaintance, I never met a man of loftier character." He was one of the greatest Americans of this country," said William M. Evarts. "To name Abraham Lincoln and Frederick in one breath does no injure to either," said "The Advance."



Yet "Fred Douglass" began life as a Maryland slave. He did not know the date of his birth, a fact which grieved him through his entire life; but he reckoned it to have been February, 1817. His mother was the only woman on the plantation who could read; but he saw little of her, for she worked twelve miles away. The last time he saw her, the hungry boy was roasting a few kernels of corn when she entered; she had walked the twelve miles to see him. He declared that he felt proud as a little king, seated on her knee, as she gave him a ginger-cake. He slept in her arms, but when he awoke she was gone; for she must travel those twelve miles before sunrise. He never saw her again.

One of his early lessons in slavery was received on seeing his aunt whipped till the blood ran down,—the first of many such horrors he witnessed.

THE T STREET RAID.

THE TOWN IS EXCITED AND ALL KINDS OF RUMORS ARE AFLOAT.

The BEE is in possesion of facts that will lead to the investigation of a raid that took place on T street a few evenings ago. The persons stand high in society, hence the facts have been surpressed. The authorities are aware of this raid and why it has not been investigated the BEE is unable to explain, The BEE will, however, give full particulars in its next issue The officers who made the raid in the precinct are keeping the affair quiet. The principal actress in this drama was carried to the station heavily veiled, but she was fully identified by the BEE as well as all the other colored females and their white male company.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking

SECRET ORDERS.

To the different bodies of the A. A. S. R. Mystic Shrines and the fraternity in general. In accordance to promise I reproduce from the originals.

Chicago, Ill., July 28, 1897.
Ill. D. F. Seville, 33°; Grand Secretary General H. E.
Dear Sir and Bro.:—
John A. Bell 33°, of Grand Rapids, Mich., and quite a number of Masons in that city want to start and organize a new blue lodge and they want to get a dispensation or charter from the Grand Lodge of Washington, D. C., which you and Brother Adams are connected with. I have recommended them to your grand lodge. Will it be O. K?
Yours fraternally,
John G. Jones 33
have been on sick list, but better.

Date of postmark on envelope as follows: "Grand Rapids, Mich. Sept., 31, 1898." Received by me Oct , 2nd, 1898.—D. F. S.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct., 31, 1898.
Hon. D. F. Seville 33°, Ill. Grand Recorder of A. A. S. R. Valley of Washington, D. C.
Dear Sir and esteemed Bro.:—
Yours of Sept. 22nd received and contents duly noted. Will say I would have never known that there was a York Rite Compact Grand Lodge in the State of Michigan, if it had not been for Bro. Jones referring me to you. Now my dear bro. I believe that the York Rite Compact is cutting a greater swell than was anticipated on the start and I am under the impression that illustrious is State Rite. If this be true it will break up the lodges in that state as it has in Michigan, when I wrote you on the subject, we had but one lodge in the State, we made two (meaning Harmony Lodge No. 2,) we have just reinstated St. Mary's Lodge with 16 members at Ann Arber, Mich. and have two more in sight, the State Rites has only four lodges in financial standing in the State. The Commandaries in the State are all broken up, and I do not believe that they will ever set up again. We will have a grand lodge meeting in Grand Rapids in December. I send you this circular.
J. A. Bell 33.

N. B.—Whenever you see a dash—— it signifies that the sentence is unfit for publication.

Chicago, Ill., Feb., 23, 1896.
Ill. D. F. Seville, 33; Grand Secretary General H. E.
Dear Sir and Brother—Whenever those ——namely: T. A. Jackson, Jas. O. Bamfield and their foolish followers state to yon and tell the Masons in your city that I have been expelled from my Masonic Lodge or any branch or part of masonry you can tell them that they are unmitigated liars and falsifiers of the blackest and deepest dye, and if they attempt to expel or suspend you or any of our men in the Blue House I will come to Washington, D. C., and at once organize and establish a Blue Lodge, under the Supreme Council of the A. A. S. R. and give them a charter and they will be just as legal as any they have. You will remember that according to Masonic Law, that in this country many years ago, lodges were organized under the Supreme Council of the A. A. S. R. and we have now at any time a perfect right to do it whenever we get ready,
Yours fraternally,
John G. Jones, 33°;
3717 Armour ave.

I would suggest to the grand lodges of state rite of the D. C., and Ill., to write to the grand lodge of Michigan State Rite for detailed statement relative to the formation of Harmony Lodge No. 2, (Compacts.) The returns will show whether this statement be correct or not. So far as Mr Jones Star (masonic) is concerned it is on the wane. Had the Ill. J. N. Adams 33°, at that time grand master of the Blue department here and myself as the grand secretary, favored the request of the Ill, Jones and Bell, things might have been different. I desire to state that there had better be a cessation of hostilities, because if I explode a bomb I fear some one will feel bad. This is the last warning.
